PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(Right hand over heart, standing at attention)

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands; one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Collect for Club Women

(all standing)

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity, and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; and make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all. And, O Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

—MARY STEWART

"There are no college courses in this business." Mr. David said, "What ever I have to offer is purely hard work and experience."

The experience began 15 years ago after his arrival from England where he had been a furniture designer. After a series of sales jobs including selling at Tiffany's he drifted into party planning, first in a small way and gradually into large events where he made his name.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE AMERICAN HOME DEPARTMENT

American Home Department opened its club year with a Buffet Luncheon on November 6th, 1973. We were entertained by a humorist, Mr. Wm. Schwartz, followed later by tables of bridge.

Our Department participated in the Boutique sponsored by all Departments on November 29, 1973 with an Afghan demonstration. Also, one of our members donated the afghan for the raffle, which netted $120.00 profit to the General Club.

We were responsible for the table decorations for the Christmas Luncheon.

Our Annual Meeting was held on Feb. 12, 1974 with a smorgasbord luncheon, following this games were played.

For our Sponsored Day on Feb. 21st, we presented Dr. Margaret Fagan as the featured speaker. We entertained with 20 tables of bridge afterward.

Our philanthropy contributions were donated to the General Club project of purchasing animals for the African Veldt at our Ft. Wayne Children's Zoo.

We participated in all other General Club activities.

We welcomed 2 new members and received 1 transfer.

BOOK AND TRAVEL DEPARTMENT ANNUAL REPORT 1973 - 1974

A smorgasbord luncheon, November 20, opened the Book and Travel Department year with the program, "Words and Music," by Mrs. Myron Corll. On January 24, our sponsored day, Betty and Jock Leslie-Melville gave "Africa's Our Home." Bridge followed the luncheon.

Our department was in charge of the hostesses for the Christmas Party.

Bridge followed our February 19, annual meeting and luncheon. Miss Dorothy Ridgway reviewed the book, "O Jerusalem," at the last department meeting of the year, April 16.

Book and Travel Department participated in all department sponsored events: the Hobby — Bake Sale — Boutique, the Christmas Party, and the Monte Carlo Night.

We welcomed nine new members, one transfer from another department, and one reinstated. We lost one member by death.

We joined other departments in contributing to the Club's Philanthropic Project, the purchase of a Dik-dik for the Franke Park Zoo. Individual contributions and proceeds from a white elephant and used book sales were used for this purpose.

ANNUAL REPORT OF CIVIC DEPARTMENT 1973 - 1974

Civic Department sponsored Brian Bex, founder of the American Communications Network, for their General Club Sponsored Day.

Three luncheons were held during the club year and featured such speakers as Dick Florea on "The Old Fort Project" and Mrs. Sue Thoms on "What's a Woman To Do?" The Annual Meeting and a silent auction were scheduled at the March luncheon along with bridge.

Civic Department members participated in the Hobby Day and Boutique. The Department sponsored Sharon Ennis, who demonstrated and displayed the art of ceramics from the clay figure to the finished product.

Mrs. George Bender, a Civic Department member, very beautifully sang the invocation for the Christmas luncheon; and our department had the chairmanship of Monte Carlo Night.

The regular $25 contribution to Philanthropy along with $85 from the silent auction and donations was given to the Zoo Project.

Fourteen new members were welcomed into the department, one went from active to absentee, one transferred to Junior Department, eight resigned and one member was lost through death.

FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT ANNUAL REPORT 1973 - 1974

The Fine Arts Department opened its year with the 21st Annual Tea and Exhibit of Indiana Artists. There were 120 paintings exhibited; 136 persons in attendance; 33 awards given. Other exhibitors during the year are: Grace Leslie Dickerson, Louis W. Bonsib, Max Dille, Lois Pieper and the Fort Wayne Artists Guild.

The fee for showing has been raised to 50¢ per picture. The Art Exhibit's Directors account balanced even with costs, not counting the paintings sold. There were $710.00 worth of paintings sold in 1973-74.

Because the chairman resigned, the first vice chairman took the chairmanship, and Mrs. Earle E. Kelsey was elected to fill the vacancy.

At the Annual meeting, Mrs. Richard Stahl of Huntington College narrated her chalk artistry, "Man's Greatest Achievement of the 20th Century." Other programs were as listed.

The proceeds from the Silent Auction, $36.53 were directed to the Philanthropy project, the African Veldt. Also the $25.00 directed to the department from the annual Philanthropy fund.

The Department began the year with 86 members; 1 member was transferred to Absentee; there were 2 resignations, 1 death, 3 delinquents and 1 new member.

Our department selected the menu for the Christmas luncheon; and served as chairmanship for the May luncheon. We participated in the Boutique and Monte Carlo Night.

We began the year with $112.90, and have a balance of $55.10 to return to the Club Treasury.

ANNUAL REPORT 1973 - 1974 JUNIOR DEPARTMENT

The Junior Department opened its Club year on October 30 with a Guest Night and Crazy Bridge party. Mrs. Howard Dennis gave a resume of this year's classes which will be sponsored by the general club.

On November 27, Mrs. Hope Nightingale presented a delightful, as well as "delicious" program, as she prepared budget recipes suitable for Holiday

Entertaining. Also in November, on the 29th, the Junior Department sponsored a booth and contributed to the club-sponsored Craft Day and Christmas Boutique.

On December 15 we sponsored a Holiday Dance with pre-dance parties in the homes of our department members. The proceeds of $186.31 were contributed to the African Veldt project.

Our Annual meeting was held on February 19. The Panel of American Women presented a most interesting program.

Monte Carlo Night, held on March 15, was an all-department function this year of which the Junior Department was in charge of decorations and publicity.

The Department Sponsored Day was March 28, with luncheon and bridge following the lecture given by Mr. Roger Conklin.

Our closing meeting of the year was a husband and wife theatre dinner party on April 19th.

This year we welcomed nine members into the department.

Reports of Chairman & Officers

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE RECORDING SECRETARY 1973 - 1974

A very successful opening reception for 450 members started the 49th year of the Fort Wayne Woman's Club under the capable leadership of Mrs. William Gaylord.

Invitations to join the Club were sent to women whose names had been submitted by members, and 61 new members were added. To welcome the new members, a coffee and brunch for them and their sponsors was given by the hospitality committee.

The Thursday programs covered a variety of subjects with many outstanding and well-known speakers and performers. Luncheon attendance increased over last year.

All departments worked together for the Boutique — Craft — Hobby Day, Christmas Luncheon and Monte Carlo Night. The Junior Department again sponsored a lovely Christmas Ball. For their philanthropic project, the departments contributed money for the purchase of an animal for the African Veldt at the Fort Wayne Children's Zoo.

Several interesting bus trips were made through the efforts of the projects committee, and money was added to our treasury.

Members participated in crewel embroidery classes, gourmet cooking and bowling.

The house committee functioned effectively by keeping the Club clean and purchasing new curtains and other miscellaneous items for the kitchen. Three English pewter chandeliers, generously donated by a Club member, were hung in the Williamsburg Room. By action of the Board of Trustees, all chandeliers in the Club were made possessions, rather than permanent fixtures.

The Board meetings were well attended, with 7 members having perfect attendance.

Several revisions were made in the by-laws which will appear in the new yearbook.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Lea Jeffers
Recording Secretary

ANNUAL REPORT
BOARD OF TRUSTEES, 1973 - 1974

The Trustees met in two regular meetings as prescribed in the By-Laws.

Repairs were made to the air conditioner, coffee maker, stainless steel sink; the fire extinguishers were checked and the rent was paid to the Chamber of Commerce for a total of $948.72.

By action of the Board of Trustees all of the chandeliers in the clubhouse, including the new pewter chandeliers donated by Mrs. Paul Yergens were made possessions rather than permanent fixtures.

Retiring Board members are Mrs. Alton Bloom, Mrs. A.J. Baxter and Mrs. Robert McDougall. New members elected to the Board of Trustees are Mrs. William Gaylord, Mrs. George McDowell and Mrs. Robert Yergens. Mrs. Quincy Baldwin was elected chairman and Mrs. Donald Rupp, secretary for the 1974-1975 season.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Robert McDougall

PHILANTHROPY REPORT, 1973 - 1974

Philanthropy was allotted $350.00 in the budget. The departments agreed that all the money should go to the Zoo fund. The additional money raised made a total of $936.03.

Mrs. Robert E. Yergens
Chairman
